

To the Governor of Mississippi and the State Board of Pardons:

We, the undersigned citizens of Chickasaw county, Mississippi do most earnestly petition you to grant a pardon to one Ira Seay, convicted of illicit distilling at the April term, 1921, of the Circuit Court of the Second District of said county and sentenced to serve a term of eighteen months in the state penitentiary. We have known petitioner practically all his life and feel that the offense of which he was convicted was simply an act of indiscretion on his part. We do not believe that he owned or had any interest in the still in question, but that he just happened to be at the still at the time of his capture for the purpose of getting whiskey for himself. The still in question was located several miles from where petitioner lived. Besides, he has an aged and widowed mother who is dependent upon him for support. We feel that he has already been sufficiently punished for his act of indiscretion and earnestly appeal to you to grant him a pardon.

Respectfully submitted,
Ira Seay, et. al.

To the Governor of Mississippi and the State Board of Pardons:

We, the undersigned citizens of Chickasaw county, Mississippi, most respectfully show to you that at the April term 1921, of the Circuit Court for First Judicial District of Chickasaw County, Mississippi, one Leonard Doss was convicted on a charge of illicit distilling and was by the court sentenced to serve a term of three years in the state penitentiary. We do not believe that he was guilty of said charge but that he was simply a victim of circumstances. We do not believe that he had any interest at all in the still that was captured and the proof showed that he had been at the still only a few minutes when the officers captured same. We are satisfied that his only purpose in being at the still was for the purpose of getting some whiskey for his own use. We do not believe that he should suffer the penalty imposed upon him. We therefore most earnestly ask you to grant him a full and complete pardon.

Respectfully submitted,
Leonard Doss, et. al.

AN ORDINANCE

An ordinance, entitled an ordinance to require property owners in the City of Okolona to keep their premises clear of weeds, rubbish, etc.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Okolona, that from and after the passage and due notice to property owners in the above named City, it shall be unlawful for any property owner to allow property within the City limits to grow up in weeds, or to pile cans, rubbish, trash, or anything that might make the said property unsanitary, whether the property is occupied by dwelling house or not.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Okolona, that any property owner of the City of Okolona, who shall allow his property, within the City limits, to grow up in weeds, bushes or undergrowth, or who shall pile rubbish of any kind on said property, whether the same be occupied by dwelling or not, or who shall not keep the ditches thereon free from weeds, or rubbish, or anything that might obstruct the stream, or who shall not keep his property in a general sanitary condition, shall be liable to a fine of not less than Five Dollars and not more than Ten Dollars, for each offense, and

Be it further ordained that after a two weeks publication of this ordinance in the Okolona Messenger, and a reasonable time in which to comply with the above, each property owner who doesn't comply with the above shall be liable for a fine of not more than Five Dollars per day for each day he shall allow his property to remain in said condition, and that said fines shall be collected as delinquent axes are collected.

It is further ordained that five days shall be a reasonable time in which to comply with above ordinance, from date same appears in Messenger the second week.

T. M. DEAN,
Mayor.

Passed in open session June 6, 1921.

W. E. BEARDEN, Druggist

Gertrude had attended a funeral and had been much attracted by the beautiful hearse. Last Sunday she was in the yard playing when another hearse glided smoothly past the house. She ran into the house clapping her hands in an excited way and called to her father: "O, papa, come quick and see the nice graveyard machine."

Surgeon's Penalties.

In the ancient days of Mesopotamia the surgeon was discouraged from making rash operations. If the patient died the surgeon's hands were cut off. If a veterinary surgeon was successful he received one-sixth of a shekel; but if the animal died he had to pay one-sixth of its value.
